CLMA No. 4789 of 2004
In
WPSB No. 230 of 2004

Mr. V.S. Sirpurkar, C.J.
Hon. Irshad Hussain. J.

Mr. B.D. Upadhyay, leaned counsel for the petitioner, Mr. N.C. Gupta, learned standing counsel, and Mrs. Anjali, learned standing counsel for the Central Government appeared.

Petition is allowed to be withdrawn on the ground that statement is made by Mrs. Anjali, Standing counsel for the central Government. that the representation of the petitioner is being under the active consideration of the Central Government. Needless to the petitioner, the petitioner would have further remedy of challenging it by way of writ petition.

If is expected that the Central Government shall complete this exercise of consideration within one month from today. In the meantime, the status quo shall be maintained.

Petition is disposed of as withdrawn.

All the other application are also closed.
